STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

It has been brought to notice of the State Government that offences of sexual harassment, assault or use of criminal force against women are increasing day-by-day. Offences of rape and gang rape are being reported in a large number. Many suicide cases of women after molestation were registered during last three years. Sexual exploitation and abuse of women of twelve years or less are heinous crimes and need to be dealt with effectively.

2. To deter the possible perpetrators of the crime against women and to ensure full freedom and dignity of the women as enshrined in the Constitution of India, the punishment and fine are proposed to be enhanced in the existing provisions.

3. The State Government has, therefore, decided to amend the Indian Penal Code (No. 45 of 1860) in its application to the State of Madhya Pradesh suitably.

4. Certain practical difficulties have been experienced in the implementation of the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (No. 2 of 1974) as well. In view of the above, it has been felt necessary to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 suitably.

5. The salient features of the proposed amendments of the Code of Criminal Procedure are as under:—

- (1) The amount of fine specified in section 29 has been enhanced.
- (2) It is proposed in section 437 that even if the offence committed by a person against a woman is punishable for not less than 7 years, the person shall not be released on bail by the court without giving an opportunity of hearing to the public prosecutor.
- (3) Certain sections of the Indian Penal Code (No. 45 of 1860) have been proposed to be amended, therefore consequential amendments have been proposed in the First Schedule to the Code of Criminal Procedure.

6. The State Government has, therefore, decided to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 in its application to the State of Madhya Pradesh suitably.

7. Hence this Bill.
